Morning Prayer, May 11

Opening and Invitation

As a new day comes, O God, open our hearts and minds to your love, your presence, and your grace. We begin in the name of God who is our Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier. Amen.

“Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here; he has risen, just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. Matthew 28:5

Lord, open our lips. And our mouth shall proclaim your praise.

Psalm 95: 1-8

Come let us sing for joy to God

Let's shout joyfully to the rock of our salvation.

Let's come before God's presence with a song of thanksgiving.

Let's shout joyfully with psalms and instruments.

For ours is a great God, and a great Ruler above all gods.

In God's hand are the caverns of the earth, and also the heights of the hills.

God created the sea and has molded the dry land.

Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee, and kneel before God our Creator.

For we are the people of God's pasture and the sheep of God's hand.

Oh, that today you would hearken to God's voice!

Glory be to God, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. World without end. Amen.

Words of Confession

Each morning we are graced with a new day, a new beginning. Let us claim this day.

Loving God, you have created us, know us, and claim us as your own. We ask for your forgiveness and grace for all of the times that we have strayed from your path. We ask for the courage to face our errors and willingness to amend our ways, so that we may rest in the peace that only you can give and be your light in this world. Give us the power to love as you love, and to forgive as you forgive.

Assurance

Scripture tells us “If we say, we are without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. If we acknowledge our sin, God is faithful and just and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from every wrong doing.” Accept this truth and continue to walk in the path of love, light, and peace. You are a new creation.

The Word of God

Psalm 47

All you peoples, clap your hands, shout to God with cries of gladness. For You, O God, the Most High, are awesome; You are the great Ruler over all the earth. You subdued nations under us and brought peoples under our feet. You chose our inheritance for us, the pride of Jacob and Rachel, whom you loved.

God has ascended amid shouts of joy and amid the sound of trumpets. Sing praises to God, sing praises; sing praises to our Creator, sing praises. For God is the Creator of the entire earth, so sing hymns of praise. God reigns over all the nations; God is seated on the holy throne. The princes and princesses of the nations assemble with the people of the God of Abraham and Sarah; for the rulers of the earth belong to God, and God is exalted on high.

Acts 18:23-28

After staying in Antioch some time, Paul left and traveled in orderly sequence through the Galatian country and Phrygia, bringing strength to all the disciples.

A Jew named Apollos, a native of Alexandria, an eloquent speaker, arrived in Ephesus. He was an authority on the Scriptures. He had been instructed in the Way of the Lord and, with ardent spirit, spoke and taught accurately about Jesus, although he knew only the baptism of John. He began to speak boldly in the synagogue; but when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained to him the Way of God more accurately. And when he wanted to cross to Achaia, the brothers and sisters encouraged him and wrote to the disciples there to welcome him.

After his arrival he gave great assistance to those who had come to believe through grace. He vigorously refuted the Jews in public, establishing from the Scriptures that the Christ is Jesus.

John 16:23b-28

Jesus said to his disciples: "Amen, amen, I say to you, whatever you ask God in my name you shall be given. Until now you have not asked anything in my name; ask and you will receive, so that your joy may be complete.

"I have told you this in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures but I will tell you clearly about God. On that day you will ask in my name, and I do not tell you that I will ask God for you. For God loves you, because you have loved me and have come to believe that I came from God. I came from God and have come into the world. Now I am leaving the world and going back to God."

The Word of God. Thanks be to God.

Creed

We believe in God, who places joy in our souls, dancing in our toes and songs in our hearts. We believe God wanted gladness to flow like a river, and so created a bountiful earth with plenty for all to share.

We believe in Jesus, who turned water into wine, celebrated with outcasts and sinners, and touched the broken so that they could leap and dance. We believe that Jesus opened the doors and set an extra place so we could feast.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, who prompts us to smile; who sends us invitations to come and dine; who nudges us to openness and tenderness.

We believe the Spirit is present every time we gather to break bread and is urging us to live joyfully and walk hopefully. Forever, we will live in the embrace of God, and be a witness to resurrection joy. Amen.

Prayers

Our Mother and Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come, Your will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread and
Forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us away from temptation and deliver us from evil.
For Yours is the kingdom, the power and the glory, now and forever.
Amen.

Prayer for the Departed: Everlasting God, we have all lost a loved one and there is a small whole in our hearts when we cannot see them in person. Please remind us how everlasting Love is. Help us to remember there are no boundaries which it cannot cross so we may continue to feel our loved ones who have joined you in paradise.

Prayer for Truth: Jesus, you are the way, the truth and the light. Help us this day to keep this knowledge foremost in our thoughts. Guide all of your people to treasure the truth. Where we are afraid of it, give us courage. Where people are persecuted for it, give them strength to continue. Where we are unsure of what your truth is, fill us with your Wisdom.

Prayer for Peace: God of peace, our world is becoming more combative, more unequal, more frightening. We ask that you spread your peace throughout your peoples' hearts. Help us to discover ways to turn our swords into plowshares and our fear into love. And, help us to teach these ways to others and bring peace to this world.

Prayer for Those in Need: God, you have blessed this creation with abundance, yet some of our brothers and sisters find themselves in need of food, shelter, medical care - - basic human needs. Teach us ways to share the blessings we have been given, no matter how small. For as we treat one another, we treat you.

Canticle of Simeon

Lord, now you let your servant go in peace; your word has been fulfilled: my own eyes have seen the salvation which you have prepared in the sight of every people: a light to reveal you to the nations and the glory of your people Israel.

Glory be to God, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. World without end. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Light of the world, we come to you with so much to be grateful for.... Grateful for your sustaining grace, mercy, and tenderness. Grateful for a relationship with you that brings light and hope to our lives and the lives of others. Grateful, too, for your unending presence in our lives.

We are grateful for the creation that surrounds and sustains us. The beauty of your trees and flowers, of your seas and mountains. The joy in your creatures – great and small. The wonder of space, the stars; the moon and sun which light our path.

Thank you for the gifts we have been given, the ability to learn and grow in wisdom each day and to deepen our relationship with you; the ability to see your face in every person we meet; the ability to love and be loved, to forgive and to be forgiven.

Thank you God for your everlasting love, for Jesus who makes us a new creation, and for filling our hearts with your Holy Spirit. Amen.

Benediction

God will keep you from all harm— God will watch over your life; your coming and going, both now and forevermore.

Psalm 121:7-8

Thanks be to God.

In the name of our God who is our Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier.
Amen.
