Morning Prayer, May 13

Opening and Invitation

As a new day comes, O God, open our hearts and minds to your love, your presence, and your grace. We begin in the name of God who is our Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier. Amen.

“Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here; he has risen, just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. Matthew 28:5

Lord, open our lips. And our mouth shall proclaim your praise.

Psalm 95: 1-8

Come let us sing for joy to God

Let's shout joyfully to the rock of our salvation.

Let's come before God's presence with a song of thanksgiving.

Let's shout joyfully with psalms and instruments.

For ours is a great God, and a great Ruler above all gods.

In God's hand are the caverns of the earth, and also the heights of the hills.

God created the sea and has molded the dry land.

Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee, and kneel before God our Creator.

For we are the people of God's pasture and the sheep of God's hand.

Oh, that today you would hearken to God's voice!

Glory be to God, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. World without end. Amen.

Words of Confession

Each morning we are graced with a new day, a new beginning. Let us claim this day.

Loving God, you have created us, know us, and claim us as your own. We ask for your forgiveness and grace for all of the times that we have strayed from your path. We ask for the courage to face our errors and willingness to amend our ways, so that we may rest in the peace that only you can give and be your light in this world. Give us the power to love as you love, and to forgive as you forgive.

Assurance

Scripture tells us “If we say, we are without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. If we acknowledge our sin, God is faithful and just and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from every wrong doing.” Accept this truth and continue to walk in the path of love, light, and peace. You are a new creation.

The Word of God

Psalm 68:1-25

May God rise up, and the enemies be scattered; may God’s foes flee. As smoke is blown away in the wind, so will they be blown away. As wax melts away before a flame, so will the wicked perish before God. But those who are righteous will rejoice; they will exult before God, crying out with great delight.

Sing to God, sing praise to God’s name; exalt the One who rides upon the clouds. Rejoice in the presence of this God whose name is Love. You O God, parent of orphans and the defender of widows: such You in you holy dwelling place. You gives a home to those who are forsaken and lead out prisoners amid chants of exultation, while rebels are forced to live in an arid land.

O God, when you set out at the head of your people, when you went marching through the wilderness, the earth quaked, and rain poured down from the heavens, at the presence of God, the One of Sinai, at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

You poured down rain in abundance, O God, and revived your exhausted inheritance. It was there that your people settled; and in your great goodness, O God, you provided for those who were needy. God issues the word, and a vast army proclaims good tidings.

Blessed be God, day after day, the God of our salvation, who carries our burden. Our God is a God who saves; the Lord God delivers from death.

Acts 19:1-8

While Apollos was in Corinth, Paul traveled through the interior of the country and down to Ephesus where he found some disciples. He said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you became believers?" They answered him, "We have never even heard that there is a Holy Spirit."

He said, "How were you baptized?" They replied, "With the baptism of John." Paul then said, "John baptized with a baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, in Jesus."

When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. And when Paul laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they spoke in tongues and prophesied. Altogether there were about twelve men.

He entered the synagogue, and for three months debated boldly with persuasive arguments about the Kingdom of God.

John 16:29-33

The disciples said to Jesus, “Now you are talking plainly, and not in any figure of speech. Now we realize that you know everything and that you do not need to have anyone question you. Because of this we believe that you came from God.” Jesus answered them, “Do you believe now? Behold, the hour is coming and has arrived when each of you will be scattered to your own home and you will leave me alone. But I am not alone, because God is with me. I have told you this so that you might have peace in me.

In the world you will have trouble, but take courage, I have conquered the world.”

The Word of God. Thanks be to God.

Creed

We believe in God, who places joy in our souls, dancing in our toes and songs in our hearts. We believe God wanted gladness to flow like a river, and so created a bountiful earth with plenty for all to share.

We believe in Jesus, who turned water into wine, celebrated with outcasts and sinners, and touched the broken so that they could leap and dance. We believe that Jesus opened the doors and set an extra place so we could feast.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, who prompts us to smile; who sends us invitations to come and dine; who nudges us to openness and tenderness.

We believe the Spirit is present every time we gather to break bread and is urging us to live joyfully and walk hopefully. Forever, we will live in the embrace of God, and be a witness to resurrection joy. Amen.

Prayers

Our Mother and Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread and
Forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us away from temptation and deliver us from evil.
For Yours is the kingdom, the power and the glory, now and forever.
Amen.

Prayer for creation: Creator of all that was, is and will be. Turn our hearts and minds to this beautiful world in which we live. Help us to be good stewards for all the water, air, and creatures of this earth, that we may preserve what you have gifted us and are able to pass on your creation forever and ever.

Prayer for our nation: Ruler of all, just are your thoughts and your ways. We thank you for the nation we inhabit, for the freedoms it affords us. We ask for your just guidance as we elect leaders. May we honor the truth, seek integrity, and elect those leaders who care for all of creation and treat it and us as holy. We ask for patience, and passion, and the willingness to work for leaders to model your love, grace, and acceptance of all.

Prayer for the sick: We raise up to you, O Comforter, all who are in need of healing – be it emotional, physical, or spiritual. Guide us to that quiet place within where we can gather courage, perseverance and hope for ourselves or our loved ones in need. Surround us with that peace only you can give.

Prayer for spring: Bountiful Creator, giver of all that grows from the earth, we lift up our hearts in gratitude for your hope that is sometimes difficult for us to manifest. As the trees bud, the grass turns green, the days become brighter, help us to remember that as part of your creation, we too continue to grow and to bloom. Make us as bright as the sun, and as beautiful as the flowers. May we be a sign of your love, peace and hope.

Canticle of Simeon

Lord, now you let your servant go in peace; your word has been fulfilled: my own eyes have seen the salvation which you have prepared in the sight of every people: a light to reveal you to the nations and the glory of your people Israel.

Glory be to God, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. World without end. Amen

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Light of the world, we come to you with so much to be grateful for.... Grateful for your sustaining grace, mercy, and tenderness. Grateful for a relationship with you that brings light and hope to our lives and the lives of others. Grateful, too, for your unending presence in our lives.

We are grateful for the creation that surrounds and sustains us. The beauty of your trees and flowers, of your seas and mountains. The joy in your creatures – great and small. The wonder of space, the stars; the moon and sun which light our path.

Thank you for the gifts we have been given, the ability to learn and grow in wisdom each day and to deepen our relationship with you; the ability to see your face in every person we meet; the ability to love and be loved, to forgive and to be forgiven.

Thank you God for your everlasting love, for Jesus who makes us a new creation, and for filling our hearts with your Holy Spirit. Amen.

Benediction

May the love of God wash over us;
The peace of Christ restore us;
And the inspiration of the Spirit empower us.

Thanks be to God.

In the name of our God who is our Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier.
Amen.
