Holy Presence Easter Season Newsletter April 2024

He is Risen Indeed! Alleluiah!

Said the Reverend...

An interesting Easter thought...

"The tomb of Christ...and the traditional location of the Upper room, where the disciples were gathered, and Mary and the women would have shared the news of the Resurrection, is about fifteen-minute walk from the tomb. Though I imagine they were running.

So, between the time that the Risen Christ appeared to the women and the time that they reached the Upper Room, in that 15-20 minutes, they were, in a sense, the church on earth. For only to them had been revealed the full Paschal Mystery: the meaning of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. So, they were the church."

Paraphrased from James Martin, SJ

Faithfully, Reverends Joan & Colleen

UPCOMING EVENTS – MARK YOUR CALENDARS:

Holy Presence Parish Cookbook

We are planning to build a parish cookbook to sell as a fundraiser to help with our programs. Gary Davis has volunteered to coordinate this project. We are using an online source to build the cookbooks, Create My Cookbook. We can create it and have it available on their site with no expense to Holy Presence, but we get money for each one ordered.

We are looking for any or all of you to submit favorite family recipes. You can do this by emailing Gary Davis at garyfdavis3@gmail.com or by bringing in a copy of your recipe to church. Gary prefers email as he can cut and paste into the cookbook structure.

We need the following:

- Name of Recipe
- Ingredients
- Instructions
- Name of recipe maker
- Notes [any info you want to include, like any of the following]
 - We have this at [special occasion]
 - We always had this at [relative]’s house
 - Serve with [side dishes, condiments, etc]

Please submit your recipes by June 30.

Thanks for taking part.

Thank you Gary Davis for creating & launching our Holy Presence Parish Cookbook

Marge Blenkush had graciously offered to share her wisdom and insight in her talk on Mary Magdalene. May 16th in the Fireside Room.

We will celebrate the Thursday evening Mass in person on May 16th.

SIGN UP TO ORDER YOUR HOLY PRESENCE T-SHIRT!
